

MEMORANDUM

TO: William Stowe, CEO and General Manager

FROM: Jennifer Terry, Environmental Advocacy Leader

SUBJECT: Environmental Advocacy Outreach Summary
May 18-June 19, 2017

I represented DMWW at the following meetings and conferences, building coalitions for source water protection:

- Women, Food and Agriculture Network – Plate to Politics, Raccoon River
- Grad Students from Furman University, Greenville, South Carolina – tour and policy discussion
- Environmental Law and Policy Center
- Advocacy Strategies summer strategic planning session
- SafenetRX – pharmaceutical disposal
- Iowa Environmental Council
- Iowa Rivers Revival
- Practical Farmers of Iowa
- Iowa Department of Natural Resources Watershed Improvement
- United States Geological Survey
- Steering committee – Iowa Alliance for Responsible Agriculture, planning committee for Sunday, June 25, annual meeting in Des Moines, working for moratoriums on new/expanded Confined Animal Feeding Operations
- Healthiest State Initiative – research on CAFOs
- Water Quality Conservation Drainage Day in Sac County – partnership with Capital Crossroads
- Hosted Cedar Rapids Mayor Ron Corbett for tour and water discussion
- Hosted two tours for Mercy College Community Health
- ICOGS – Indian Creek WMA – Cedar Rapids
- IIHR—Hydrology Institute, University of Iowa
- Iowa Natural Heritage Foundation / Des Moines WRA – Clean Water Fund
- Environmental Working Group
- White Rock Conservancy

- Iowa Learning Farms / Water Rocks!

I also attended required annual continued legal education through the Iowa State Bar Association to maintain license to practice in the state of Iowa. I am on the planning/steering committee this summer for Women for Water, a bi-partisan grass-tops to grass-roots effort to engage and mobilize women across the state to speak out for water quality as we approach the 2018 legislative session.
